TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 11, 1883.

CONCERNING what the minstrels said,
We're caring not a penny,
Because we know the Maysville girls
Are sweet and good as any.
We made the platform long ago,
And there we firmly stand,
Our own sweet girls haven't got
Their equals in the land.

POTATOES are selling in Danville at twenty-three and a half cents per bushel, delivered on the cars.

The gate receipts during the Lexington fair amounted to $6,226 which is $1,447 more than last year.

It should not be forgotten that our enterprising contemporary is going to print the council proceedings next Saturday.

The liberality of Maysville merchants in giving away street car tickets to their customers is being imitated at Cincinnati.

A SEINING party who went to Brooks' bar recently, caught about two hundred pounds of good fish. They were principally black suckers.

COL. J. M. STOCKTON, real estate agent, sold this morning to Mr. Omar Dodson, the residence of the late Mr. John M. Duke, on Front street, for $3,500 cash.

The minstrel entertainment at the opera house, last night, drew together a large audience. The programme was very entertaining and was well rendered.

The new postal note has been received in this city, and many of them have already been used. They are issued for sums less than five dollars and cost three cents each.

ANOTHER hog, one of the pets of Sutton street, expired there yesterday, near its native wallow, it is supposed from dyspepsia, the consequence of gormandizing at a banquet recently on Second street.

M. F. MARSH, attorney and real estate agent, sold a house and lot on 3rd street, between Sutton and Wall, this morning, for Dr. W. H. McGranaghan. Mrs. Margaret Feltus was the purchaser, paying $1,100.

ADAM GEIS, the boy who fell from the roof of the slaughter house on the Flemingsburg turnpike last Sunday afternoon, had both arms badly sprained but they were not broken. Dr. A. G. Browning attended the case.

MR. GEORGE S. BRUCE, a well known and prominent citizen of Carlisle, died this morning. He was the father of Mrs. O. H. P. Thomas, and the brother-in-law of Mr. Eli F. Metcalfe, of this city. The funeral will take place Wednesday morning at Carlisle.

Among the sales of stock made recently by Messrs. W. W. Baldwin & Co., were a pair of horses to a man in Pennsylvania for $1,300; forty-four mules to E. Kendig, of the same State, for $175 each, and forty-four mules to Morton, Thompson & Co., of New Orleans, for $165 each.

The gloomy fears, the desponding views the weariness of soul that many complain of, would often disappear were the blood made pure and healthy before reaching the delicate vessels of the brain. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purifies and vitalizes the blood; and thus conduces to health of body and sanity of mind.

The ladies will find at Mr. Hermann Lange's jewelry store a very beautiful collection of artistic porcelain ware, which he has just received from the East. He considers it no trouble to show these goods, and will be pleased to exhibit them to all who may call. A visit will well repay the trouble of going.

The military company from Manchester, Ohio, numbering sixty-four privates, three commissioned and eight non-commissioned officers, were in Maysville this morning, and left by the steamer W. N. Chancellor to go into camp at Burnett Woods, near Cincinnati, for eight days. They were a fine looking body of men.

The directors of the Maysville Electric Light Company held a meeting at the office of the County Clerk Monday afternoon, and elected Dr. G. W. Martin President; Mr. W. S. Frank, Vice President; Mr. W. W. Ball, Secretary and Treasurer. The President and Secretary were appointed a committee to correspond with manufacturers with a view of obtaining the machinery needed, and beginning the business immediately. The enterprise, it appears, is successfully established, and Mr. Salomon's work in this city is done. He usually carries out what he undertakes, and our citizens may therefore rely upon seeing the city illuminated by electricity at an early day.

County Court Proceedings.

In the case of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company versus John G. Bacon and others, which is a proceeding to secure the right-of-way for said road over the land of certain parties, the suit as to Patrick Byron and Samuel Redd and wife was dismissed as agreed; the report of the commissioners allowing Augustus Sullivan and wife $660; Theodore Hudnut, Perry Jefferson and Horace January, $200, was confirmed, no exceptions having been taken thereto. In the same case, exceptions having been filed by John G. Bacon and several others, a jury was ordered to be empaneled, and go upon the premises next Thursday.

The last will and testament of Susan Robinson, deceased, was produced and proven by the oaths of S. T. Collins, William Selby and C. W. Williams, the last named qualified as executor under same, with Thomas Lally as surety, J. D. Raymond, S. T. Collins and H. F. Hawkins, appraisers.

S. T. and G. S. Collins were exonerated from the payment of tax on $3,080. John T. Gault resigned as overseer of roads in precinct No. 11, and Milton McCarthy appointed in his stead.

An inventory, &c., of the personal estate of Charles Osborne, deceased, was filed and ordered to be recorded.

A sale bill of same was filed. Same order.

L. G. Weind & Co. executed bond as coffee house keeper.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Miss Jacqueline Fulton, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. McGovern on their trip to Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Carrie Newton, of Covington, is visiting Mrs. George Schiltz. She has won many friends during her visit.

Mr. Alfred Cliff, of Maysville, was taking Aberdeen in last week. Report has it he is contemplating buying property here.

The schools all opened last Monday with a large attendance. This cool spell is quite an incentive to the children's ambition.

The Cincinnati Exposition will be well represented this week by Aberdeeners. We heard our reporter and several other gentlemen left Sunday for the Queen City.

Miss Belle McGallen, quite an accomplished young lady, is teaching school in the country. One glance from her flashing eyes is enough to subdue any mischievous pupil.

Our commanding beauty, Mrs. Lafayette M. Goveney, nee Miss Gus Fulton, is no more among us. Her future residence will be Manchester, O. They say she was fairly in her beauty as a bride.

They say we are apt to take the motto of our own lives from "As You Like It," and it is always perfectly excusable for us to do as we please, but when we judge the lives of our neighbors we read another play, and give "Measure for Measure."

Mrs. — wanted to rent a pew in a fashionable church, and was particularly desirous of having it eligibly located. "Ah, yes," he replied, "I have one that will suit to perfection. It commands a beautiful view of nearly the whole congregation." "That will suit me, as that will include a good view of you."

During low water, the grades on the Ohio side are simply the tug of war in going up and down them to the ferry boat. We have no choice, the lower grade is composed of rocks which extend out to the middle of the river. And the upper grade you have a steep and winding walk composed of one extensive sand pile slightly sprinkled with dust, which gives a perfect polish to your shoes.

Last Friday night Mrs. Nelson Sutton gave a large party at her new home on Third street, where all of her friends, including young and old, spent a most delightful evening.

There are several reasons why the Equitable life takes the lead of all others doing business in the United States. One reason is the promptness with which losses are paid, the society not taking the usual sixty to ninety days time. This is the rule and not an exception. Below is a sample. Any person desiring life insurance would do well to apply to
